Dear Miss Mason

I was much pleased to receive your kind letter, & especially so, to find from it, that you have entered upon another, & highly important sphere of public utility.

Your proposed undertaking promises to be of great usefulness: & I am delighted to find that you have secured Mr. Stanfords' always valuable Co-operation.

Be sure, that I will not fail, at any suitable opportunity, to express my favourable opinion of whatever you propose to effect: for, I am sure, it will be very satisfactorily performed.

I am sorry to report unfavorably of my state of ~~health~~.

I will always give my pleasure to receive any communication from you -

Believe me,
My dear Miss Mason,
Sincerely, & cordially Yours,
